LOCAL MATTERS.

Sun rises tomorrow at 6:19 a. m. and sets 6:12 p. m. High water at 12:08 a. m. and 12:39 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair, much colder tonight with a cold wave. Tuesday fair and cool; fresh north-west to north winds.

DEATH OF MRS. SMITH.—Surrounded by loving children and grandchildren, Mrs. Sarah G. Smith passed away yesterday evening at 6:20 o'clock at her residence, No. 510 Wolfe street. She was the widow of the late Francis L. Smith, for many years a distinguished lawyer in this community, and the daughter of John C. Vowell, of London, England, and Mary Jacqueline Smith, of Shoppers Hill, Middlesex county, Virginia. Her father, Mr. Vowell, was a successful mercantile man and his wife, contributing to all parts of the world, contributing to the commercial activity and importance of Alexandria. Mrs. Smith was a woman of the noblest traits of character and gifted by Providence with an intellect far above the average and a sound, well balanced judgment. She had out-lived the friends and companions of her youth, and of all the families who at that time were conspicuous here, she alone remained until this day. Of children she had nine, four of whom survive her. She left behind her three young minds the greatest and truest of Christianity, and lived to realize that no woman ever possessed to a larger degree the confidence, the respect and devotion of her children and descendants than herself. She was a model of industry and economy, gifted with every womanly grace and virtue, and her presence always lent a charm to every scene at which she was present. She was merciful and charitable to those who were privileged to know her will remember her wonderful power, the calm, sober judgment and sound sense she brought to bear upon every proposition, and the correctness of her conclusions. Mrs. Smith was of distinguished lineage, numbering among her ancestors many men notable in the early history of Virginia. The Jacquellins and Careys were amongst her kinsmen, and Augustus Warner, at one time Speaker of the House of Burgesses, was her direct lineal ancestor. She was a remarkable and gifted woman. Her loss will be mourned by many, but the immediate members of her household are in a state of consolation, and she has left there a void which never can be filled. As an example of lofty devotion and self-sacrifice, her life as daughter, sister, wife, mother and friend is a legacy to all who knew and loved her. Mrs. Smith was in the 89th year of her age, and almost to the last retained all of her wonderful faculties. Death was the result of no disease, but, like a flower, she faded away after a long and useful life. Her surviving children are Miss Margaret V. Smith, Col. F. L. Smith, Mrs. E. L. Daingerfield, and Mrs. W. E. Strong, the latter of New York.

ROBBED AGAIN.—The saloon of Mr. Samuel P. Wingfield, northwest corner of Duke and Fayette streets, was robbed between 12 and 2 o'clock yesterday. The thieves secured five half-pint bottles of whiskey, and between $5 and $6 in nickels, which they took from a slot machine. They also broke open two drawers, but secured nothing. About 2 o'clock yesterday morning Lieutenant Smith and Officers Knight, Beach, Roberts, and Davis arrested William Bright, aged twenty-two years, and Edward Jones, alias Nelson, aged about thirty years, on the charge of robbing the saloon. The men were arrested at the home of Bright's mother, Mr. John Turner, a watchman employed by the Southern Railway, yesterday morning, when in the vicinity of Mr. Wingfield's place, says that he saw two men, one of whom was Jones, take to their heels and run. He at once notified the police. From the description given the police they at once proceeded to the house of Bright and arrested the men. Under Bright's bed upstairs they found between $5 and $6 in nickels. In the woodshed were found fifteen pounds of a light tobacco, bearing the brand of "Lion." No whiskey, however, was discovered. The prisoners refused to talk when brought to the station house. They neither affirmed nor denied the robbery. Mrs. Bright, however, recognized a hat, iron bar, and spoon which were found in Mr. Wingfield's place, but stated that she knew nothing of the robbery. Bright has been frequently arrested here and in Washington. He recently served a term of twelve months in Washington for the theft of a bicycle, and has served a term of three years in the penitentiary for robbing a freight car at Culpeper. He has served numerous terms in the city jail on the charge of petit larceny, and has been the source of much annoyance to the police. Jones also has a police record. He served a term of three years in the penitentiary on the charge of robbing a box car at Culpeper, and was only recently released. Of late there have been numerous robberies in this vicinity, this being the second time in the last two weeks that Mr. Wingfield's saloon has been burglarized. The tobacco recovered, it is believed, was stolen from a box car which was recently robbed near here. Jones and Bright were taken before Mayor Smith this morning. The evidence and the prisoners were sent on to the grand jury.

MEMORIAL BRIDGE.—The aid of President Roosevelt has been secured in the effort to get an appropriation for the laying of the corner stone of the proposed memorial bridge across the Potomac river during the Grand Army of the Republic encampment in Washington in October. A delegation of two ex-Union and two ex-Confederate soldiers—"Corporal" James Tanner, Thomas S. Hopkins, William A. Gordon and Frank Hume—talked with the President on Saturday about the hopes of the old soldiers of the country for a memorial bridge and left with the President a statement as to the matter. The veterans asked the President's aid to get through Congress at this session an appropriation for the corner stone and were assured of the chief executive's assistance and hearty sympathy. The President was most cordial to the delegation, and said that the plan met with his approval in every respect. The delegation told the President that the annual encampment of the G. A. R. may be the last it will ever hold in Washington and that the occasion should be made forever memorable by laying the corner stone of the structure. The President's callers were greatly pleased with his warm attitude in support of the project and feel much encouraged over the outlook for securing an appropriation.

SEPARATION OF THE RACES.—After considerable difficulty and much exertion, Mr. James R. Caton, Delegate from this city and county in the Legislature, has succeeded in obtaining favorable consideration of a bill to require all companies or corporations, person or persons operating electric railroads or railways to provide for the separation of white and colored passengers traveling upon the cars or coaches running upon their respective lines of railroad or railway in Alexandria county. Mr. Caton, it will be remembered, worked laboriously to have a bill passed requiring separate cars for white and colored persons. Finding this impossible, he concentrated his exertions on the bill described above, but was finally compelled to limit its provisions to Alexandria county. Mr. Caton has also had bills passed by the House empowering the city of Alexandria to issue two series of bonds of $50,000 each as directed by Council at its last meeting. The bill now goes to the Senate.

THE BANQUET TONIGHT.—All arrangements for the banquet to be given in the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum Hall tonight by the Ancient Order of Hibernians, in honor of St. Patrick, have been completed, and an enjoyable occasion is anticipated. The hall has been tastefully decorated with flags for the occasion. The decorating was done Messrs. George Smith and Edward Lynch, both of Washington, assisted by Messrs. Thomas D. Downey, T. F. Kelley, John McKenna, M. Creagan, and William J. Desmond of the local council. The banquet heretofore given by the Hibernians have been interesting from start to finish, but that tonight promises to excel all others.

WOODEN WEDDING.—Mr. and Mrs. Herman Weiss celebrated their wooden wedding last night at their home, on north Columbus street. A very enjoyable evening was spent by all present and at a late hour the company adjourned with many good wishes for their host and hostess. A fine collation was served during the evening. The presents which were numerous, were handsome and useful. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wynnott, and Mr. George Mangle, of this city, and Mrs. Doran Badt, Mrs. Yetter Miller, Misses Annie Roth, Annie Vintine, Julia Silva, Messrs. Fred Roth, George Clarke, Albert Vintine, and Fred Vintine, of Washington.

PERSONAL.—Mrs. W. B. Odell of Warrenton, is visiting Mrs. J. T. Prescott.

Rev. Granville R. Micou, of Christ church, Lancaster county, is at the Alexandria Hospital where he will undergo a slight operation.

Mr. William H. Phillips has been appointed watchman at the Kretz Works. Miss Summers, teacher of Washington School No. 6, who has been sick for the past week, resumed her duties this morning. There being no substitute for the intermediate and higher grades her school was closed during the week.

REPORTED LYING.—A report was circulated early this morning by some practical joker to the effect that a man had been lynched at the northwest corner of Royal and Cameron streets, and a number of people repaired to the scene. At the spot indicated a human figure was seen dangling in the air as high as Haman ascended, but upon examination it was found to be a man in a straw suit, a man of straw. It later flashed upon the beholders that St. Patrick's Day was upon us again and the effigy which usually accompanies the saint's day was in evidence.

YESTERDAY was another dismal Sunday, the rain which set in Saturday evening continuing at intervals throughout the day. The attendance at the churches showed a slight falling off in consequence, while people showed but little disposition to move about the streets. At times heavy showers fell, but throughout most of the day the rain was in the nature of a mist. The wind was fresh from the southeast and clouds sailed from that direction all day. Last night the wind changed to the northwest and today clearing conditions followed.

UMBRELLA-MENDERS IN DURANCE VILE.—There seems to have been an influx of umbrella-menders to Alexandria recently and four are now reclining members of the chain gang. Two were arrested last week with fighting in the station house, and two more were nettled yesterday for one vagrancy and the other for indecent conduct in the street. They all refused to pay fines or to work on the gang and are at present feasting on limited allowances of bread and water.

BASKETBALL.—In a game of basketball on Saturday night in this city the Carroll Institute team of Washington, defeated the Alexandria five by the score of 6 to 0. The line-up was: Carroll—Chambers, I. F.; Spanier, R. F.; O'Dwyer, center; Hughes, R. B.; Noyes, L. B.; Alexandria—Scrivener, R. F.; Fisher and Rogers, I. F.; Duffy, center; Dent and Tension, R. B.; Biggs, L. B.; Field goals—Cramer, I.; Spanier, I. Umpires—Tate and Howard. Timer—Cook.

NEW GOODS.—Messrs. Isaac Eichberg & Son advertise new and choice goods for the coming spring and summer. Their black goods department is especially well stocked, while their line of silks has never been excelled hereabouts. Their advertisement, which appears elsewhere, should be read closely by all in want of such articles, or anything else in the dry goods line.

RIVER NOTES.—The steamer Sue, of the Weems line, will reach here next Tuesday. She will leave on her return trip every Tuesday hereafter and will carry freight only.

The schooner Silver Spray left this morning in tow of the tug George W. Price for Alderman Balleger's fishing shore at Free Stone Point.

The several cases against the W. A. & M. V. Ry. were continued till a special term.

Resolutions of respect to the late A. W. Armstrong and G. A. Mushbach were presented by Judge Norton and Capt. Kemper respectively and were ordered to be spread upon the minutes of the court. Court adjourned till tomorrow.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

In the Corporation Court today D. O. Dalzell and James O. Bailey were made parties to the suit of G. A. Armes vs. the Kretz Chemical Company.

A window of Mr. William Becker's store, southeast corner of Prince and Fayette street, was broken Saturday night but nothing in the store was disturbed.

Julia Cheeks, colored, was arrested today on suspicion of entering a residence on Duke street one night recently. She could not be identified and was dismissed.

Plans for the new union depot in Washington have been prepared. The building will cost about $6,000,000. It will take about two years in which to complete the structure.

By a transposition of figures Saturday the Gazette stated that the Hydrographic engine weighed 1,730 pounds and the Columbia 1,700. The mistake was, of course, apparent to all readers. It should have read 7,120 and 7,100.

The County Board of Supervisors met today and awarded the contract for repairing the old Washington and Alexandria Turnpike road to Messrs. James Duncan, C. W. Bell, J. C. Barrell and Richards Roberts, each of whom will repair a certain portion of the highway.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Mrs. E. A. Proctor, who is showing a handsome display of spring millinery including all the latest styles of hats, bonnets, ribbons, etc.
